Aetna requests all clients provide a disclosure or updated disclosure of any members or dependants located in sanctioned countries. Sanctioned countries include Crimea (Annexed Region of Ukraine), Cuba, Iran, North Korea, Sudan (North) and Syria*. If you and/or your dependants are working, residing or spending time in sanctioned countries or regions, please let us know immediately.

* The above list is subject to change based on changes in financial sanctions regulations. In addition, there are other countries subject to less broad sanctions than the countries/region listed here. For more information, visit www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Pages/default.aspx.

Aetna reserves the right to modify its products, services, rates and fees, in response to legislation, regulation or requests of government authorities resulting in material changes to plan benefits and to recoup any material fees, costs, assessments, or taxes due to changes in the law even if no benefit or plan changes are mandated.

Please see the 'Introduction' section of your Handbook for more information about financial sanctions.

Aetna® is a trademark of Aetna Inc. and is protected throughout the world by trademark registrations and treaties.

Aetna does not provide care or guarantee access to health services. Not all health services are covered. Health information programs provide general health information and are not a substitute for diagnosis or treatment by a health care professional. See plan documents for a complete description of benefits, exclusions, limitations and conditions of coverage. Information is believed to be accurate as of the production date; however, it is subject to change. For more information, refer to www.AetnaInternational.com.

If coverage provided by this policy violates or will violate any United States (US), United Nations (UN), European Union (EU) or other applicable economic or trade sanctions, the coverage is immediately considered invalid. For example, Aetna companies cannot make payments or reimburse for health care or other claims or services if it violates a financial sanction regulation. This includes sanctions related to a blocked person or entity, or a country under sanction by the US, unless permitted under a valid written Office of Foreign Asset Control (OFAC) license. For more information on OFAC, visit www.treasury.gov/resource-center/sanctions/Pages/default.aspx.

Notice to United Kingdom residents: In the UK, Aetna Insurance Company Limited (FRN 458505) has issued and approved this communication.

Notice to all: Please visit www.aetnainternational.com/ai/en/about-us/legal/regional-entities for more information, including a list of relevant entities permitted to carry on or administer insurance business in their respective jurisdictions.

Important: This is a non-US (United States) insurance product that does not comply with the US Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PPACA). This product may not qualify as minimum essential coverage (MEC), and therefore may not satisfy the requirements, if applicable to you and your dependents, of the Individual Shared Responsibility Provision (individual mandate) of PPACA. Failure to maintain MEC can result in US tax exposure. You may wish to consult with your legal, tax or other professional advisor for further information.
